FOREWORD....A BOOK PUBLISHED YEARLY..GIVING STATISTICS AND DATA OF THE PRECEDING YEAR.

Bev and Jan - Co-editors

That is the technical definition of this yearbook. But to us it is more personal than that--it is a record of our last, and best, year of high school and of you--all the teachers, and fellow students who we will remember each time we turn the following pages. You may laugh, or even become saddened when you recall events which we have recorded for you. Much work was needed to complete this book, but the staff and Mr. Bensink did it gladly so that you may have a lasting souvenir of the 1964-65 school year.

DEDICATION

GUIDANCE - ADVICE IN CHOOSING COURSES, PREPARING FOR A VOCATION, OR COPING WITH PERSONAL PROBLEMS, GIVEN TO STUDENTS BY A TEACHER.

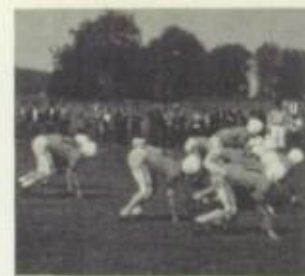

We, the Senior class of 1965, wish to dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Cowan, because you have been so helpful and kind to us by giving us GUIDANCE.

Although your work is not often recognized, you are one of the most important teachers of our school. For it is to you, Mr. Cowan, that we bring our problems of school, and our hopes and ambitions for the future. You help us to plan our adult careers to fit our personalities and abilities so we can be good and useful citizens. This yearbook can only show a small part of the appreciation and respect we have for you.

The A. F. S. student from South Viet Nam this year is a welcome addition to C. C. S. 's Senior Class. Anh is taking courses in English, History, and Business. She resides at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hutton in Clymer. We are very happy that A. F. S. has made it possible for her to spend this year here with us.

Anh's sister, Mary Lou, points to where Clymer is.

Anh is introduced to our A. F. S. officers.

Anh lends a helping hand on Tommy's Esso Day.

Dianne Kay Rothenberger

After her summer in the Philippines, Dianne is back again with us at C. C. S. While abroad, she resided with the Kee family, at South Leyte. Dianne is a Senior, majoring in science and math. We, the Seniors, are honored to have her among us.

Dianne points to where she went last summer.

MUSIC

CHORUS - THE "VOICE" OF C. C. S.

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings if you walked past room Twenty-four you would hear sixty voices singing in choral harmony under the direction of Mrs. Rhebergen. This year the choruses presented a Christmas and Spring Concert as well as traveled to Fredonia for competition. AND TO Chautauqua for the Music festival. In addition to the Senior High Chorus, many voices participated in the Junior High and Elementary Choral groups.

BAND - A GROUP OF MUSICIANS PLAYING TOGETHER.

This is just what the Senior Band of C. C. S. is. With Mr. Nitsch as their instructor, the members play for concerts, assemblies, and for their own enjoyment. Other specialized branches of this talented group are the Pep Band, who provide accompaniment for football games, and the Trumpeteers, who provide the fanfares for Mayday.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

December 21, 1964, was the date for the Music Department's annual Christmas concert. This year's delightful program was entitled; CHRISTMAS IN CONCERT and featured many carols and favorite Christmas classics. The Senior Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Rhebergen sang such lovely pieces as; THE LITTLE DRUMMER BOY, CAROL OF THE BELLS, GO TELL IT ON THE MOUNTAIN, and the HALLELUIAH CHORUS. The Senior band led by Mr. Nitsch, played; FROSTY THE SNOWMAN, RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER, THE CAROL FESTIVAL and other sacred pieces. Mrs. Rhebergen's Junior High Chorus also took part, singing; WHITE CHRISTMAS, J-I-N-G-L-E BELLS, SILENT NIGHT, and the FIRST NOEL.

To make the evening complete, the elementary chorus sang several selections. Against the festive stage setting completed by Mr. Snyder and his Art classes, this concert was in perfect tune with the holiday season.

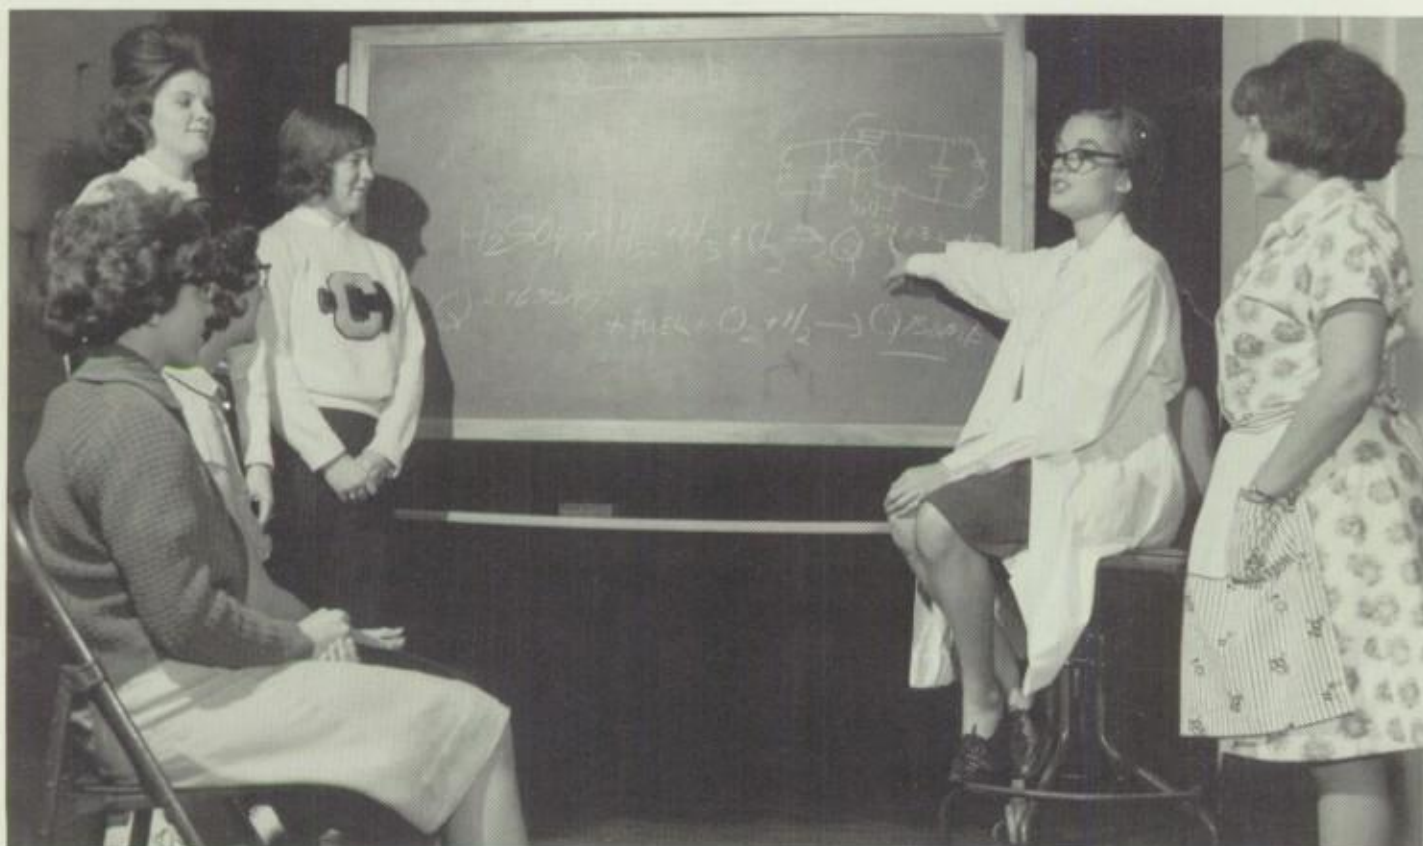

ACTIVITIES AND CLUBS

JUNIOR AND

On March 19 and 20, the Class of 1965 presented its Junior play, "If a Man Answers". The play related Chantal Stacey's (Frances Legters) adventures in acquiring and "Training" a husband in spite of all of the conflict in her French and Bostonian upbringing and the competition of his beautiful models. Although her use of canine training backfired, she managed to keep Gene, (David Edwards) her husband, away from Tina (Diane Goggin) her best friend, and at the close of the curtain appeared to be starting to live "happily ever after."

On the evenings of Nov. 19 and 20, many strange sounds were heard coming from the C. C. S. gym. Among these were the loud roars of some mighty beasts. These were the sound effects for the Senior play, THE MOUSE THAT ROARED. The action of the play centered around a tiny, backward country in Europe, Grand Fenwick. Linda Howard portrayed the regal duchess Gloriana while David Beckerink played the part of her husband-to-be, Tully. As a result of the unfair competition for their one export, wine, they declared war on the United States and invaded. To the surprise of everyone, they won! As the curtain fell, "the tiny mouse with the power of a lion told the rest of the world--no war!"

MAY DAY 1964

Queen Ann and her Royal Court.

MAY DAY - TRADITIONAL CEREMONIES HONORING THE COMING OF THE SUMMER SEASON.

May Day at C. C. S. has always been an important occasion, and May 19, 1964, was no exception. It was a bright sunny day as the twelve archbearers formed a floral passageway for the entrance of the queen and her court. Ann Neckers was Queen, crowned by Junior Representative Janet McCourt, and attended by the Senior Girls. The fourth grade girls then performed a colorful May Pole dance for the conclusion of a very entertaining afternoon.

Left, right--Now don't trip on the steps.

Golly--these arches are heavy!

TULIP FESTIVAL 1964

TULIP FESTIVAL - OUT - GROWTH OF A COMMUNITY'S PRIDE IN ITS DUTCH HERITAGE.

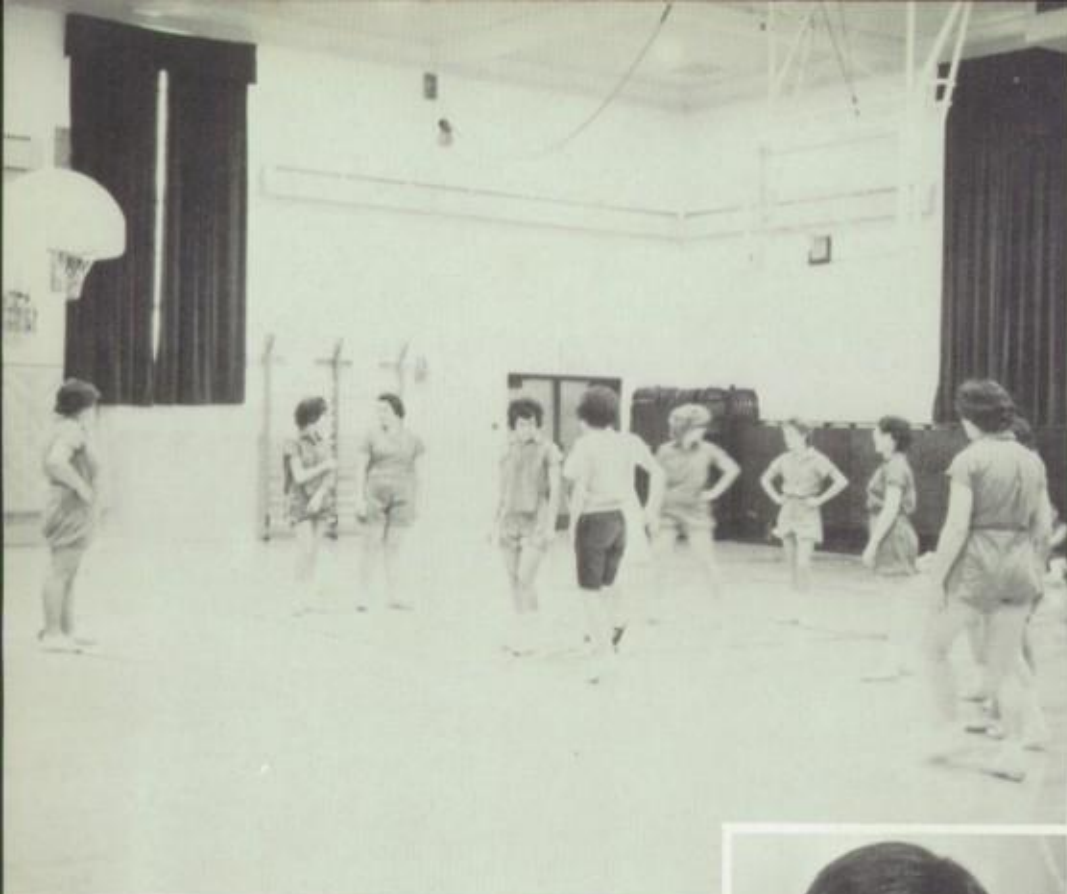

Clymer again celebrated its annual festival on May 19 and 20, 1964, with the theme "Friends, Near and Far." The largest parade ever, preceded by local townspeople acting as streetscrubbers and the Klompen dancers, featured floats, drill teams and marching bands. Later, in the school gym, the ten queen candidates presented a program of their talent. The coronation of Janet McCourt by reigning queen Lynda Kearns was the high point of the afternoon. Other features of the festival were window displays, hobby and flower shows and a musical program on Friday and Saturday nights.

1964 BASKETBALL PLAYOFFS

The Clymer Pirates showed everyone what a basketball team can do if it really wants to. The team moved from fourth place in the league to runner-up in the Section VI Championship. Coach Winner's team had a rough schedule, having to play Mayville again for a position in the semi-finals, but they pulled through, 41-34. The next game found Clymer facing Delevan-Machias, a thriller which was decided in overtime. Next Little Valley, then Buffalo.

At Memorial Auditorium the Pirates met their all-time rival, Sherman. It was a hard fought game ending with Sherman 49, Clymer 40. This ended a very successful season.

YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHERS

CLASS HISTORY

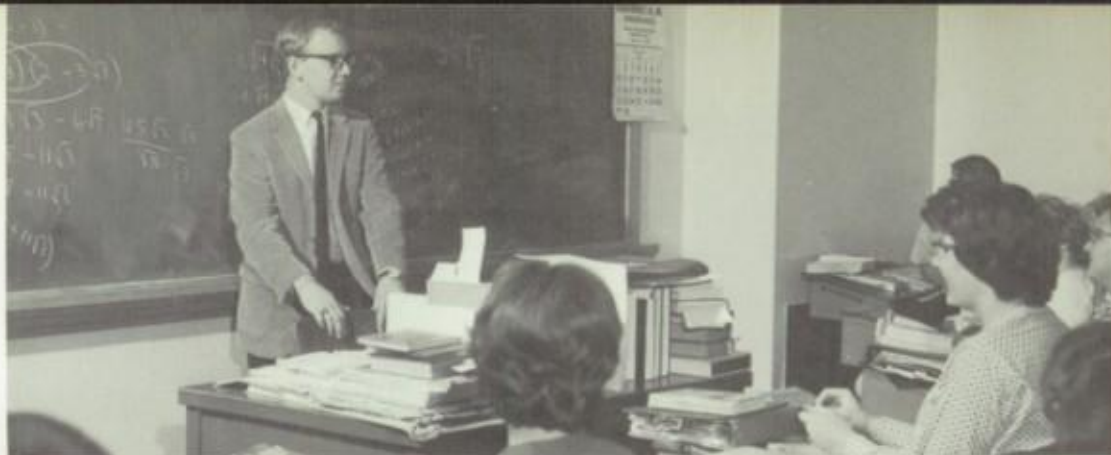

We had our first experiences as a complete high school class in 1960, when we became Freshmen. Under the leadership of our president, Frances Legters, we had projects such as magazine and candy sales. The gym was under construction that year, so we had no assembly.

Gail Bensink was the president of our Sophomore Class. Again we sold candy, and we won the ice cream party for high magazine sales. One of our major projects (?) was a dance, which netted us 26¢! Two more profitable undertakings were a spaghetti supper and the Freshman-Sophomore basketball game. That year Dave Beckerink and his harem starred in our assembly play, "Father Lives With Seven Women".

Our Junior year was a really busy year. Having lost Marc Griffeth, we gained Janet McCourt. Dianne Rothenberger was President and we had many projects, such as magazine sales, another spaghetti supper, concession stands at football games, and basketball schedules. We really woke the town up with our play, "If a Man Answers" and with our Bermuda Day. Our rings were ordered in September, and by Christmas, our fingers were the object of much attention. The highlight of the year was May 22, our Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. Held at the Maplehurst Country Club, it was a perfect ending for a wonderful year.

Of course, our senior year was even better. We started off this final, and best, year by electing Mrs. Schelter our Advisor and Jerry Wiggers our President. The first major projects were the sale of cider and Tommy's Esso Day. Then we set a school record for yearbook ads, with over $1300 worth sold. Our Senior Play, "The Mouse that Roared" came next, followed by suppers, the Bermuda Day and sales of such things as light bulbs, candy, and school pins. All these projects helped to raise the necessary funds for our high school goal, the Washington trip. April 16 was the big day, as we left Clymer at 6:00 A. M. for five fun-filled days at the capitol. The year was brought to a close by May Day, the Junior-Senior Banquet and finally commencement.
